

CALL FOR PAPERS:

2004 ICOMOS CANADA ANNUAL CONGRESS AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

My City, My Heritage, My Future:

Conserving the Heritage of Canadian Cities in the 21st Century

Ottawa/Gatineau, 21-23 October, 2004

---

Cities play an unparalleled role in the conservation of civic heritage. At this year's annual congress, ICOMOS Canada will explore the conference theme and will discuss the new realities of conserving the heritage of cities at the beginning of the 21st Century, including the practical aspects.

As part of this event, ICOMOS Canada invites members and all interested to submit papers from a variety of perspectives related to:

My City: Current and New Heritage Issues and Opportunities

(20th century heritage; archaeology; energy/environment/transport issues; growth, demographic changes; changing cultural diversity; industrial/economic changes; public security, etc.)

My City: Experiencing the Benefits of Heritage Conservation

(City profile, quality of life, identity/attractiveness of city and neighbourhoods, culture, tourism, conference/event venue; economic benefits; cost recovery; environmental sustainability; knowledge sharing; district stabilization; etc.)

My City: Creative Heritage Conservation Management

(New heritage policies; integrating heritage into planning; interjurisdictional territorial and greenbelt management; civic heritage conservation; new programs, grants and incentives; partnering, etc.)

My City: New Tools to promote and support Heritage

(WWW based tools – Canadian Register of Historic Places, Canadian Standards and Guidelines; databanks; Tourism/technical/research web sites, media; virtual tours, creative education, public consultation approaches, etc.)

Papers accepted will be published in the 2004 ICOMOS Canada Bulletin Momentum and distributed to members, national and international conservation organizations and contributors (two copies). Papers may be in French or English. To submit an abstract (300 words max.) or paper, please contact the editor. Abstracts and papers should be in 8.5" X 11" format, or in MS Word or WP format. Please include captions with images and your contact details. If originals are sent, please confirm that you would like them returned. Abstracts are to be submitted by 16 July, 2004. Papers to be published in the Bulletin need to be received by 16 August, 2004.

The editor reserves the right to suggest revisions for clarity and length. Please direct any questions to the editor, Carolyn Bouffard-Lima, tel: (613)727-6273 . Please send abstracts and papers to: ICOMOS Canada at: P.O. Box 737, Station B, Ottawa, Ontario. K1P 5P8; Fax: (613)749-2071; email: canada@icomos.org
